

“I Was There”

Choose a specific event in a character’s life (example: Jonah getting swallowed by the whale) and:

- Imagine what it must have been like to witness the event
- Give an account, in your own words, of the event
- Create a pretend interview with the Biblical character to get their feelings on the event

A series of horizontal dotted lines providing space for writing, extending from the top of the text area down to the illustration.

Extension: Students, use WORD to create a newspaper article that showcases your summary of the Bible event.

